Hello, World!
The summary will require 1 calls and 553 tokens
John Ray Grisham, Jr. is a renowned American author known for his legal thrillers, which have sold over 275 million copies worldwide and have been translated into 42 languages. He began his writing career with "A Time to Kill" in 1984, published in 1989. His latest novel, "Gray Mountain," published in 2014, follows Samantha Kofer, a Wall Street lawyer who finds herself working at a legal aid clinic after the recession. Critics highlight his evolving style and significant themes in this book, which combines elements of small-town politics with a compelling narrative.

-----
